 MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING
 (ESPIONAGE)

With reference to the visit of President Fulgencio Batista of Cuba to Daytona Beach, Florida, from March 23 to March 26, 1956, the following information has been received from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past:

According to the source, several members of a group known as the "Patriotic Club of July 26" of Miami, Florida, planned to proceed to Daytona Beach to demonstrate against Batista's appearance there on March 23 and 24, 1956. The source advised that he has received no information indicating that any violence is planned by this group. The "Patriotic Club of July 26" was organized by Fidel Alejandro Castro Ruz, Cuban revolutionary leader who has publicly advocated the overthrow of the Batista government, during his visit to the United States from October to December, 1955. Officers of the Miami chapter of this organization have been identified as follows: Juan Cheda, president; Leonardo Muniz and Rafael Izquierdo, vice presidents; Dino Eliaz, secretary; and Oscar Ramirez, treasurer. The Miami chapter consists of approximately fifty members, most of whom are reported to be Cuban nationals residing at Miami.
